You're invited to the Ladies Sunday Afternoon Tea
...with hats, stories, songs, goodies and more!
Back by popular demand

Ladies of all ages are invited to a special treat on Sunday, May 17 at 2:30 pm at The Storytelling Arts Center of the Southeast.
131 South Main Street in Laurinburg

“The second Ladies Sunday Afternoon Tea will not only have scrumptious homemade treats and fun teas, but also will have a Hats Fashion Show, featuring Helen Bullard’s charming hats collected over many years”, says co-chair Carol Whitehead. And that is not all. Brenda Gilbert will charm everyone with a funny story entitled ‘Mary’s New Hat’

The Melancholy Babies ladies barbershop chorus will be on hand to entertain as well.

Because the first tea, the Ladies Afternoon Christmas Tea, was such a resounding success, reservations are required for the May 17th event. Co-chair Annette Rowson explains, “We want to make certain that we have room for everyone ... enough china cups, tea pots and comfortable seating for all.” This is wonderful opportunity to share a lovely afternoon with women and girls you care about... grandmothers, moms daughters ,aunts, cousins and friends... it will provide you with memories and stories to share.

Tickets are $10 for ladies and $8 for young ladies under 16 years old. Don't wait, or procrastinate or you may miss out on this special treat.
